Bar Report

The bar at Br.123 continues to be the hub of the branch. The Club Room is acting as a social gathering place much of the time. This is great as it benefits both parties, you and the branch. Thank you. Since a few of the branch's revenue sources have been withdrawn, the Treasurer and the Executive have been investigating other sources of revenue to replace the loss. Any suggestions from you, the General Membership, would be gladly accepted. I know the Executive will continue to think, and to look at expenses within the branch that may lend themselves to change.

Bar prices have not been reviewed for four years and as with nearly every other commodity, there have been increases in costs for both alcohol and canteen items. There will be a recommendation brought to the General Meeting regarding a slight increase which will result in increased revenue. This information is included in the Executive Meeting minutes in the book behind the bar.

Always remember to bring your bar concerns to me personally and I will address them.

Bar Chair, Sharon Anderson

Senior's Report

Hope you're enjoying the winter we've had thus far. We still have a bit of the season yet, so we shouldn't set our hopes too high. Have you noticed that the days have been getting a bit longer? This means that spring isn't too far off. By the time the next bulletin is issued, the annual Seniors' Spring Fling will be right around the corner. It's Thursday, April 28th, from 2:00-4:00 p.m. Plans are underway. Please mark the date on your social calendar and bring a friend or two. They'll be sure to enjoy. Andy Rooney once said, "Everyone wants to live on top of a mountain, but all the happiness and growth occurs while you're climbing it."
